OTHER:

Maciej specialises in matters associated with real estate law, particularly in relation to handling investment projects as well as real estate legal analyses.

He employs his real estate experience to assess the legal risks when supporting entities providing insurance services for the largest transactions on the Polish real estate market.

Maciej advises on construction projects, including providing support for investors during the investment preparation phase. He also drafts and negotiates contracts, advises on administrative procedures and handles any disputes in relation to construction law which may arise. He works on a day-to-day basis with entities providing general project management and project consultancy services.

His considerable experience in negotiating office and commercial space lease agreements goes hand in hand with his knowledge of office, commercial and warehousing real estate management and agency markets.

Maciej represents clients in multi-faceted business law cases associated with the food industry.

He has attended numerous real estate conferences and seminars.
